

A Letter from PACA

FINEPALATEGROUP.COM • NEWS & REVIEWS

On behalf of my colleagues, thank you very much for your gracious hospitality in hosting the members of PACA last evening at Fine Palate.

You and your team put on an amazing presentation – one that utterly impressed us all. The incredible food was punctuated by the friendliest and most professional service staff. That combined with a comfortable venue made for a most unforgettable evening. We were grateful to be there with all of you.

The food was just incredible. With cuisine like that, there are sure to be many fine palates in Philadelphia's future! It's evident that Chef Vince is going to make a name for himself and heighten the restaurant's profile as well. Please pass our appreciation along to him, Christian, and the rest of the kitchen staff. We'll be talking about that meal for a long, long time.

As I had stated last night, your service representatives are stellar – and then some. I'd go so far as to say that are on par with any top-rated venue in the city. Andrew, Kate and Canyon offer the utmost in professionalism and they do so with friendly and legitimate smiles. Personally, I was honored to be in their company, and I am looking forward to seeing them again soon. Kindly pass this gratitude along to each of them and the rest of your staff – they represent you well!

Also, I will be sure to reach out to Matthieu. Having him there to guide us through his personally-selected pairings was a wonderful touch. He also happens to be (as you know) a really nice guy. I will be sure to remain in touch and please do the same. Also, feel free to share any upcoming events/info regarding Fine Palate. Being in the center of it all and offering an experience unlike anything else in the city, you have captured the attention of my cohorts.

Thank you once again for everything, Courtney.
I wish you continued success and an enjoyable rest of your summer.
